Book Fair

We still have 16 spots that need parent volunteer coverage at the Book Fair this week (we would like 2 parents each slot if possible). Even if you can spare one hour it would be very much appreciated – see link below:

Wild Education

Wild Education will visit our school on Wed, Nov 29th, 2017, with their reptile exhibition and will be organized in 8 stations. We need some volunteer parents to help with the stations throughout the day (we are looking for parents who will be willing to come 30 min before morning bell for training, be comfortable with holding one animal at his/her station and to present some facts about the animal at their station, to the visiting students. Older siblings (ideally over 18 years old) would be welcomed as well as volunteers as long as they can commit to stay for the entire day. Please contact Mr. Mihaila, cristian.mihaila@abbyschools.ca if you would be interested in helping. Thank you.

After school active program Mondays from 2:30 pm-3:15 pm in CDG Gym

This program consists of a variety of sports and games in a semi-structured environment led by Mr. Travis. It is mainly for students who are not currently involved in after school extra-curricular activities or those waiting to be picked up, but is available to all. It is a drop-in program, however, to ensure proper supervision the number of students will be limited to 20.

This program will begin Monday November 20th and continue every Monday.
